

WELCOME

For years we at E.C.D. have butted heads chasing for perfection in our Land Rover Marque builds. A few years ago the owners sat down and discussed if we were to add something to our lineup, what would it be. I believe three out of the four of us said the same vehicle, the other was quickly convinced. We wanted something that would sit nicely next to one of our existing Land Rover builds and be on a par, but something different, something sporty and quintessentially British of course. Only one vehicle comes to mind, the stunning Jaguar E Type, once dubbed by Enzo Ferrari as the most beautiful car in the world, now available re-imagined by E.C.D.
